

A Shout Out to our local Girl Scouts Who Earned their Gold Award: These GIRLS ROCK!

The Girl Scout Gold Award is the most prestigious award for girls in the world, and it's available exclusively to Girl Scouts. For more than a century, Girl Scouts have been taking steps toward lasting solutions for some of the most challenging problems facing their communities and the world. A girl who earns her Girl Scout Gold Award is a true G.I.R.L. (Go-getter, Innovator, Risk-taker, Leader)™.

A Gold Award Girl Scout is bold, honest, and determined to succeed. She identifies and investigates an issue that's important to her, then builds a team, creates a plan, and takes action to make a difference. Thinking outside the box is her specialty, so she's always looking for creative ways to make an impact. Courageous and strong, she's keen to try new things and embrace the unfamiliar. She's confident, responsible, and committed to changing the world.

GSHG awarded 19 Gold Awards this year council-wide. Here are the Gold Award Girl Scouts from the Macon and Warner Robins areas:

Lauren Booth, Kathleen, GA ~ Troop #60078

Art with Heart

Lauren designed and painted a mural in the children's area of the Houston County Day Center, and provided art lessons to children to give them a creative outlet while at the center.

Heather Sillence, Bonaire, GA ~ Troop #60078

Cat Condos

Heather and her team-built cat condos to increase the local Humane Society's ability to accept more cats at the facility and educate the public about spaying and neutering.

Ansley Rowland, Gray, GA ~ Troop #60688

Local Pollinator Garden

Ansley built a pollinator garden and developed lesson plans and a curriculum for third graders in her county. The program teaches students why pollination is essential for our environment.

Aleah Ostrat, Bonaire, GA ~ Troop #31005

Playground Pals

Aleah constructed a "playground pals bench" and designed a lesson plan for kindergarteners. The program is intended to help young children make new friends
